A FIVE-STAR SAFARI FOR TWO

One lucky reader and her partner can escape to Thanda Private Game Reserve in KwaZulu-Natal for three nights of luxury in the bush, worth a total of R55 000.

Winner of South Africa's Leading Safari Lodge and Africa's Leading Luxury Lodge at the 2009 World Travel Awards, Thanda Private Game Reserve combines a Big-Five safari experience with a celebration of the Zulu people and their rich cultural tapestry. Located 23 kilometres north of Hluhluwe in KwaZulu-Natal, Thanda offers guests a luxury bush retreat and world-class game-viewing within its 7 800-hectare borders. Thanda means 'love' in Zulu and its philosophy 'for the love of nature, wildlife and dear ones' pervades all facets of the five-star lodge. In addition to the sumptuous main lodge, Thanda has a lavish exclusive-use royal suite, an authentic safari-style tented camp, an award-winning wellness centre and cultural showcase, Vula Zulu. Thanda is currently the only private game reserve in the world to be a member of The Leading Hotels of the World.
