SA Has World's Leading Luxury Lodge

There is lots of celebrating going on at THANDA PRIVATE GAME RESERVE in northern Zululand. And so there should be. Thanda has recently been judged as the World's Leading Luxury Lodge at the WORLD TRAVEL AWARDS 2009 Grand Final in London. The Grand Final sees regional winners from Dubai, Africa, Riviera Mavra and Portugal vying for the title of world's best in their respective categories.

Thanda is now also linked with King Goodwill Zwelithini kaBhekuzulu's land and forms the MDUNA ROYAL RESERVE, totalling 14 000 hectares. The endangered black rhino has been relocated to the expanded land.

Thanda is also currently the first private reserve in KwaZulu-Natal to reintroduce a breeding pack of WILD DOG. Visit www.thanda.com.
